

United Way of Clallam County

PENINSULA COLLEGE
Foundation

Jenny Steelquist
Art Saves Lives Scholarship
Information and Application

Jenny Steelquist, artist, singer and educator. 1952-2013

The Clallam Community Foundation, a program of the United Way of Clallam County, in partnership with the Steelquist Family and the Peninsula College Foundation is pleased to announce the Jenny Steelquist Art Saves Lives Scholarship.

Purpose: This scholarship was created to provide opportunity for students who demonstrate outstanding academic and artistic potential and to perpetuate the legacy of Jenny Steelquist's influence as a visual artist and gifted teacher of the humanities and studio arts.

A scholarship will be awarded in the amount of $2,000 with preference given to a student entering their second year at Peninsula College. Consideration will also be given to a student who is leaving Peninsula College for a formalized program to study art in an accredited college, art school or university to study fine visual arts (i.e. pottery, painting, sculpting), not digital/electronic multimedia. Funds may be used for tuition, text books, art supplies or studio fees.

Scholarship Requirements:

In order to be considered for this scholarship, students must submit the following to the Peninsula College Foundation office* by April 30th:

1. Scholarship Application (attached) – Please accurately complete all portions of the application.
2. Traditional or digital media image/s of original recent artwork/s, considered to be the student's "best work." Photography art submissions should be prints.
3. A written essay describing the student's artistic intent, the artistic, cultural or historic influences and the student's aspirations as a developing artist.
4. A recommendation letter from a Peninsula College arts instructor.

Applications will be considered based on the following criteria:

- Artwork reflects student's technical abilities in chosen medium.
- Artwork reflects student's grasp of and demonstration of appropriate principles of design and composition.
- A clearly written, quality essay.

*Peninsula College Foundation will forward all applications to United Way of Clallam County for review, selection and awarding. United Way will notify applicants of award status.

Jenny Steelquist Art Saves Lives Scholarship Application

Biographical Information

(Please type or print)

Name _____
Last First Middle

Mailing Address _____
_____
_____

Telephone Number _____

Email Address _____

Birthdate _____ Student ID Number _____

Essay Instructions: Attach a written essay describing your artistic intent, your artistic, cultural or historic influences and your aspirations as a developing artist. Note any honors, awards or leadership experiences you have had. List any dates and details of any art exhibitions and/or conferences you have participated in.

School Information: What is the name and address of the school or training program you plan to attend?

_____
_____

This school is (please check the appropriate description):

<input type="checkbox"/> Public four-year college	<input type="checkbox"/> Private four year college
<input type="checkbox"/> Public community college	<input type="checkbox"/> Public technical college
<input type="checkbox"/> Private vocational school	<input type="checkbox"/> Other: _____

Submit application form, essay, images of artwork and Peninsula College Arts Instructor recommendation letter BY APRIL 30 (or the Friday before if the 30th falls on a weekend) to:

Peninsula College Foundation
1502 E Lauridsen Blvd
Port Angeles, WA 98362
foundation@pencol.edu
(360) 417-6400

Peninsula College Foundation will forward all applications to United Way of Clallam County for review, selection and awarding. United Way will notify applicants of award status.